Moving Checklist...

Your Guide to a Successful Move...

LomondRemovals

Scotland's premier home & office relocation service

Moving is just a simple matter of pack and go, if you have chosen the correct mover! It does require a great deal of co-ordination, but we are here to help and hope you find these handy hints and checklist useful...

FOUR WEEKS BEFORE:

- Complete a change of address form with the Post Office to re-direct your mail.
- Inform magazine, book & music clubs of your new address.
- Notify water, gas and electricity suppliers that you will be moving and let them know whether you will require the supply switching off or whether you will be providing meter readings.
- Arrange for utility connections at your new home.
- Notify schools, churches & clubs of your impending move.

THREE WEEKS BEFORE:

- Make a handy list of contact names and phone numbers you will need when you move into your new home.
- Consider plants and pets on moving day - talk to us, we are happy to advise.
- Dispose of items you don't need in your new home. Again, do talk to us, as we can help with the disposal of unwanted household items.
- Start to run down the contents of your freezer.
- Make a sketch plan of your new home to determine the placement of furnishings.
- Transfer insurance to cover the contents at your new home.

TWO WEEKS BEFORE:

- Dispose of flammables such as petrol, matches, cleaning fluids, bleach and aerosol cans.
- Discontinue regular services such as newspapers, window cleaning etc.
- If applicable, arrange to have the satellite dish moved to the new property.
- Inform friends and family of your new address.

ONE WEEK BEFORE:

- Arrange to discontinue your telephone service and establish a phone service at your new home.
- Use up your frozen food supply or make arrangements to give it away.
- Drain fuel from lawnmowers and other garden equipment.
- Pack/empty your loft and /or sheds.

ONE DAY BEFORE:

- Defrost and thoroughly clean your fridge freezer.
- Take down pictures, mirrors, curtains and blinds.
- Disconnect your cooker, washing machine and dishwasher. Talk to us, as we can help with this.
- Arrange minders for children and pets.

ON YOUR MOVING DAY:

Relax and let us do all the work but remember to:

- Disconnect the light fittings.
- Make sure plants are drained of excess water.
- Make sure you personally take cash and jewellery with you to your new home.
- Take meter readings when you leave your property and also when you arrive at your new home.
- Label keys ready for the new owners and arrange where to collect the keys for your property.
- Pack a separate box containing snacks, kettle, tea, coffee and milk etc. to take in the car.

5 Golden Rules...

- 1 Always ensure your chosen mover has the appropriate vehicles to carry out your move. A common fault in the moving industry is inadequate transport arriving on moving day.
- 2 If possible try and avoid Fridays and in particular the last Friday of the month. Removal companies are usually inundated with work and as such these days can be problematic with more chance of handover times being delayed not to mention more expensive.
- 3 No matter how much care is taken with packing and handling, accidents do sometimes happen. All member companies must have insurance which meets industry standards and we strongly advise you to discuss this with them.

- 4 Good communication is the secret to a good move, therefore when gathering quotes, allow your movers to visit your home for a professional survey. This will allow the necessary information and requirements to be gathered, achieving a stress free and professional moving experience by means of a firm written quotation. Telephone or email moving information can sometimes be understated.
- 5 Ensure a written confirmation of your removal date is received from your chosen mover. Customers regularly phone up at the last minute because their mover has not arrived as promised and for this reason written confirmation is essential.
